

Email 1:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No attachment media or link with Email.• Overall email has casual conversation of movie trailer.• This is enough to indicate the email is safe.

Email 2:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Sender did not mentioned the name of the customer in the heading of the email.• The URL is created by hyperlinking the text, we can see the website to which it is redirecting by hovering over it.• The Email sender is asking user to update the account so it fit a document.• Overall sender tried to make a professional mail but microsoft do not send mails for just one document which is not fit in the dropbox.• The URL may be phishing technique to steal the data of the user.• These are fake messages design to trickly quick action with false urgency.• Do not open the link. Go directly to the official site and do login and check any problem is there.

Email 3:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The URL is attached to a fake login website• This is a phishing attack on the user to steal the login credentials of the user.• This indicate that this email is malicious and should not be treated as such a process of manner.• The sender is asking the user of social media is working or not is genuine but the link attached to email for the login of facebook is fake which has the format mistake of spelling in facebook.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The “b” in facebook has different format than other sentence in URL. • In this link the extension is “.opt” i.e optional practical training used by STEM students only. • Do not respond to such emails. Use authenticated social media website.
--	--

Email 4:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The mail is forwarded mail by Adam markus. • This mail has advertising of the product.

Email 5:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This email is looks professional and it's a genuine request from a user to another user. • The sender of this mail is pretident to a government spy, and want user credentials. None of the government spy revel their identity to civil person. • Sender asks for the user account details for using it. • This is enough indicate that mail is malicious.

Email 6:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The email is in professional format. • No attachment of media or link. • Normal conversation between the sender and the user. • The signature of mail indicates that the mail is from anz employee. In the mail the anz is in capital letters and as same as company logo. • This is enough to indicate the email is safe.

Email 7:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The URL is attached. • This is ad phishing type of email. • The sender mail id is suspicious by first visual. • The link is not safe either

